

SUBMIT TO THE QUAD CITY WORKER

WHAT ARE WE LOOKING FOR?

We are looking for essays, book reviews, poems, news, and art from a socialist perspective.

There is a 500 word limit, and we publish in black and white so if you are interested in providing artwork please keep those limitations in mind.

We encourage you to review our past issues to get an idea of what previous submissions have looked like.

SUBMISSION TYPES

- Essays
- Book Reviews
- Poems
- News
- Artwork
- and more!

HOW TO SUBMIT

I WANT TO SUBMIT BUT NEED AN IDEA

DID YOU RECENTLY ATTEND A DSA EVENT?

If you recently attended a DSA event then we want to know about it. Write up what the event was, what we were trying to accomplish, and explain how it fits in with our socialist aims.

DID YOU RECENTLY ATTEND A RELEVANT COMMUNITY EVENT?

If you recently attended a community event, including town halls, city council meetings, protests, or other relevant events then we want to know about it. Discuss what the event was and how the takeaways from that event interface with our socialist goals and practices.

This could be providing an update on a city council meeting that relates to one of our campaigns, it could be talking about a protest where QCDSA were showing up in solidarity with the organizers, it could even be an update into how one of our congress-members comported themselves at a listening session or town hall.

HAVE YOU RECENTLY READ A SOCIALIST WORK OR DO YOU WANT TO?

Did you recently read a book or other that touches on socialist themes? Consider writing a review!

Even if the book is a few years (or a few decades) old, does it have themes you can connect to our current struggle? If it does then consider sharing those insights in the appropriate context.
